

All activities are worth ten points... You should collect 60 points by 9 th December 2011						Date completed:	Date handed in:
Victorian games (Hopscotch / marbles) Play the game at home. Draw a picture / take a photograph. Write instruction about how to play the game or write about the game - did you enjoy playing it?
Puppet shows, (e.g Punch and Judy) became popular in Victorian times. Design and make your own puppet and make up a puppet show.
In Victorian times, schools kept log books. Keep a diary for one week of what happens at school.
Find out about Alexander Graham Bell and what he did. Write about it or paint a picture of him with his invention. (Or other Victorian inventors / inventions)
People began sending Christmas cards in Victorian times. Design your own Christmas card. Who will you send it to?
Lewis Carroll wrote 'Alice in Wonderland' during Victorian times. Read the story with your family. Who was your favourite character? What will you create to show your favourite?
Double Points!	Postage stamps were invented in Victorian times for the Penny Post. Design your own stamp. What will you put on it and how much will it be for... a penny, or more?
	Write a letter and make an envelope to go with your stamp - who will the letter be addressed to?
Bake a Victorian-style recipe. How about a Victorian Sandwich?
Read aloud with an adult at least 4 times a week and record in your Reading Diary . Please tick the box below each week you complete 4 reading times for 10 points each
Wk 1	Wk 2	Wk 3	Wk 4	Wk 5	Wk 6

